

DESIGN 1

By utilizing the power of wireless bridges it is possible to have two separate sets of cameras keeping watch over the train yard. Each set of 4 cameras are hooked to a weatherproof enclosure which houses the power and DVR. Data is then beamed back to the wireless receivers on the main building and fed to the central DVR and CMS. The 6 cameras on the building are hardwired directly to the DVR/CMS.

